

NATIONAL ARTS OLYMPIAD

ARTS OLYMPIAD

(2005 – 2008)

Euro – Asia Promotion and Cultural Foundation(EAPCF) and European Literature Circle(ELC) held Thursday, November 17th 2005, Third Art Olympiad – National Edition - at the ARO Palace Complex (five stars) in Brasov, Romania. Thirty- three artworks entered the last stage, which was comprised of four rounds. These 33 designs are the finalists of the last round.

EAPCF and ELC participated in the second “Joy Art Festival” held in Brasov from November 17,18 – 2005 and was organized by Brasov County’s Federation of Youth NGO’s. The festival included “music, theatre, stand up comedy and of course youth creating art, in action for all of us”.

ICAF’s Third Arts Olympiad was announced in the Festival. The team of jurors leaded by the prof.Nicolae Daicu, the President of the Romanian Artist Union – Brasov Branch- decided to declare the name of Romanian finalist of the National Arts Olympiad:Cosmin Moga, 12 years, student of the Romanian Art High – School from Deva (Center of Transilvania).

According to prof. Daicu, Cosmin artwork won this race because he discovered “Olympic spirit to children” through his idea to renew “Olympic Rainbow” as a multinational message addressed world –wide and his capacity to draw the attention to the “Sport Movement”.
